

Civil liberties heroine and medical freedom advocate Dr. Simone Gold struck with 60-day prison sentence based on false statements by Judge in highly partisan January 6th event indictment case.

Washington, D.C. – June 16, 2022. Physician and attorney, Dr. Simone Gold, founder of America's Frontline Doctors (AFLDS), a division of the Free Speech Foundation and the nation's premier civil liberties organization, was issued a 60 day prison sentence by U.S. District Judge Christopher R. Cooper. The judge also imposed 12 months of supervised release and a $9,500 fine. Dr. Gold was charged with Title 18 U.S.C. §1752(a)(1), which is a misdemeanor charge of "Entering and Remaining in a Restricted Building or Grounds." Information about Dr. Gold's previously scheduled speaking engagement at a rally on Capitol grounds with a government approved permit, and her entire peaceful attempts to deliver that speech amidst a crowd that was badgered and then ushered into the Capitol building through doors opened from the inside by Capitol Police, are detailed in a prior AFLDS press release (also dated 6.16.22). She was also charged with several other counts, all of which were factually false. She accepted a plea deal to this single misdemeanor in March. Please watch Capitol Punishment to learn the true story of January 6th. At the sentencing hearing, Dr. Gold's attorneys emphasized her non-violent, reasonable behavior, and lack of any criminal record, and requested she provide community medical service instead of serving a prison term. They also argued the extensive psychological trauma she endured as over a dozen law enforcement agents armed with assault rifles broke her door and arrested her inside her home, and the two days she spent in jail, should preclude her from further, unwarranted punishment. However, the judge disregarded this and proceeded to falsely state that five people died on January 6th (a commonly perpetuated media lie), that her presence at the Capitol had no relevance to the exercise of and advocacy for the First Amendment, that her charges and all associated attacks and harms against her do not constitute any form of political persecution, and that he was personally offended that millions of American citizens freely chose to financially support her political positions in defending medical choice and freedom of speech—and then used all of these false and inappropriate accusations to justify a disturbingly vindictive sentence. In addition to the trauma she endured surrounding the January 6th event and her subsequent violent arrest, Dr. Gold continues to be tormented to this day. Before January 6th, she was fired from her job as an emergency room physician in California simply because she saved patients' lives during the Covid scare by prescribing them safe, FDA-approved medicines. She later exposed mandatory, non-FDA approved, experimental mRNA injections as an unconstitutional government overreach—especially in light of the fact that older, scientifically proven medicines are more effective and less dangerous. She rightfully spoke openly about this. However, the Medical Board of California is now attempting to punish her by revoking her medical license entirely due to her 1st Amendment-protected free speech. The head of the California Medical Board, Kristina Lawson, went so far as to submit a histrionic letter about Dr. Gold in order to prejudice the judge and negatively impact her sentencing. While he stated Ms. Lawson's letter would not be used in his determinations on sentencing, the judge made no attempt to hide his bias. Strangely, Judge Cooper also seemed unusually fixated on monies raised by Dr. Gold for AFLDS, which is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that seeks to educate the public on constitutional rights and provides access to uncensored medical facts, news, and third-party telemedicine services. AFLDS is legitimately financed by voluntary member donations. Judge Cooper went so far as to falsely accuse Dr. Gold of using her arrest as an excuse to obtain personal funds, stating, "I find it unseemly that your organization is raising hundreds of thousands of dollars for its operations, including your salary". It should be noted Dr. Gold voluntarily paid for her legal expenses entirely out of her own pocket, as attested by her attorney, Dickson J. Young. Ironically, Judge Cooper self-righteously (albeit incorrectly) chastised Dr. Gold for raising money for her personal legal defense. At the same time, he blatantly disregarded the fact that Dr. Gold's 60-day incarceration in a federal prison will cost the taxpayers! If Dr. Gold had been allowed to serve her sentence through public service by providing free medical care to sick and financially challenged people, she would have served her sentence (and the public) at no cost to the taxpayers. Dr. Gold is not an extremist or criminal as the mainstream media disingenuously portrays her. She's the target of a prosecutorial witch-hunt; prey to American mid-century McCarthyism. Dr. Gold has maliciously been tagged a "threat" by homeland security and placed on a no-fly list, and then later placed on an extremely invasive security screening watchlist which makes her charitable work travels nearly impossible. After everything she had endured in California, Dr. Gold relocated to Florida—only to find the FBI falsely reported her trespass misdemeanor as a charge of treason. In essence, Dr. Gold has become an American political prisoner. She has been threatened and harassed by the government and medical boards for taking a stand against tyranny and educating the public about the illusions of "safe and effective" Covid-19 injection propaganda, which the AFLDS considers Dr. Gold's sentence to be... Continued on Page: 11

New Video Proves Jan. 6 House Committee Lied to Public on June 9

WASHINGTON, June 10, 2022 /Christian News-wire/ -- New video evidence proves that Democrats misled the public on June 9 in the January 6 Select Committee to investigate the January 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol presentation. The new video evidence can be seen at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cMr1GKh-C5bY> On June 9, British filmmaker Nick Quested repeated his claim that Enrique Tarrío, Chairman of the Proud Boys, had a "meeting" with Stewart Rhodes, President of the Oath Keepers, in a D.C. parking garage on Jan. 5, 2021. Quested testified that he could not hear what was being said during the chance encounter in a D.C. parking garage near the Phoenix Hotel. But in fact, Quested's video clearly includes the full conversation. There is no mention of the Capitol. The audio proves that Stewart Rhodes and Enrique Tarrío had never met before. The "Greeting Not a Meeting" was their first introduction. Then Rhodes turned his back on Tarrío and walked away so that Tarrío could talk privately to attorneys about Tarrío finding a defense attorney for Tarrío. Rhodes spent the next minute or two scanning outward for any security threats. Then the group disbanded after a total of 2 minutes. This analysis is from an attorney, Jonathon Moseley, who previously represented Proud Boys leader Zachary Rehl before finances required Rehl to obtain a public defender. Quested claimed he filmed Proud Boys wearing orange hats and armbands. Proud Boys never wore any orange hats or arm bands. Critics wrongly mis-identified random people as Proud Boys or Oath Keepers. Quested falsely testified that he filmed a group of 300 Proud Boys. There were only 50-100 Proud Boys in all of Washington DC on January 5-6, 2021, internal messages among the Proud Boys prove. Proud Boys messages show that almost no one wanted to attend on January 6. Few attended. Similarly, a .S. Capitol Police officer Edwards testified that Proud Boys led the breach of a line of bike racks down by the street. Clearly, the U.S. Capitol Police does not know who the Proud Boys are. When Ray Epps is shown on video whispering into a man's ears, Officer Edwards mis-identifies the man as Joseph Biggs. She doesn't know who the Proud Boys are. Finally, the Committee repeated the false claim that Trump told Proud Boys to "Stand By." But in the presidential debate 9/30, it was Biden who brought up the Proud Boys, not Trump. SOURCE Patriot's Legal Defense Fund +++
